

It's been an exciting few months getting our new website together. We're delighted to be finally underway with a range of exciting performances, events, guided walks and exhibitions around some fantastic locations in and around Southampton, Eastleigh, the Hamble, Porchester and Portsmouth.

We're adding all kinds of information, news, videos and more to the website as well as updating on what's going on in Hampshire to mark the 600 year's anniversary of The Battle of Agincourt.
