

One of the many visitors to our Medieval Weekend was Allison Symes, from Chandler's Ford Today who has been a big support of Road To Agincourt's projects for the past couple of years. As a result of her visit on the weekend, Allison has written three articles reviewing the new King's Great Ships Trail and the two-part post reviewing the Medieval Re-enactors who performed at the weekend.

Read on below to find out what Allison thought of the weekend:

Following the King: on the Great Ships Trail

Would You Live a Medieval Life?

Road to Agincourt: When Medieval Life Comes Alive Like Magic

A very big thank you to Allison and Chandler's Ford Today for continuing to support and write positive words about Road To Agincourt.