

The team involved with the Virtual Museum project have been working hard, with the project successfully pitched for by several Tec Hub members and associates, and well underway.

Tec Hub member Grant Cox of Artas Media is one of 6 working on the museum for the Road to Agincourt Project, taking on the role of 3D Designer.

Check out this interview with Grant at Tec Hub Eastleigh, talking about his involvement with the project: