

Educational Resources

Education Resources contains a number of useful resources for anyone wishing to learn more about the history of Henry V.

Featured in this section are two resource packs and a number of additional resources. The first pertains to Shakesperience, a reduced version of Shakespeare's infamous history play Henry V performed by year 9 pupils from local schools.

The second resource section looks into the context around The Legends of Sir Bevis, a play written by Hedge-End Theatre's Associate Writer Matt Beames and performed by pupils of Norwood Primary School and Freegrounds Infant School.

Visit the Education Gallery