

Harry's Hamtun with Dr Cheryl Butler

Location: Southampton

Date:

October 25th 2015

Start Time:

2pm

Departs:

Meet outside the Medieval Merchants House, 58 French Street,
Southampton SO14 2AT.

Tour Length:

Approximately one and a half hours.

Six hundred years to the very day of the historic Battle of agincourt join charismatic author and historian Dr Cheryl Butler for a walk through the old town of Southampton, spanning its history at the time of Henry V. Discover the pivotal role Southampton played in the plot to overthrow the young king; and in how the city helped Henry prepare for the now legendary battle.

Harry's Hamtun

Location: Southampton

Dates:

August 2nd, 8th and 9th 2015

Start Times:

11:00am, 2:00pm

Departs:

Meet outside the Medieval Merchants House, 58 French Street,

Southampton.

Tour Length:

Approximately one and a half hours.

This is a walk through the old town of Southampton, spanning its history at the time of Henry V. Discover the vital role Southampton played in preparations for the historic Battle of Agincourt and, of course, the infamous plot to overthrow the young king.

So What Did Agincourt Do For Netley?

Location: Netley

Date:

June 20th 2015

Start Time:

2:30pm

Departs:

Meet at Abbey Hall car park, Netley.

Tour Length:

Approximately one and a half hours

In this 600th anniversary year of Agincourt, come to Netley for a special Saturday afternoon walk to learn more of the conspirators who were involved in The Southampton Plot to kill the young Henry V and how this involved Netley.

Bustling Bursledon & Agincourt Associations

Location: Bursledon

Dates:

June 21th 2015

Start Time:

2:00pm

Departs:

Great Down Park open space car park, Bursledon.

Tour Length:

Approximately one and a half hours.

A chance to explore the quiet lanes of old Bursledon and learn more about this village next to the Hamble River that was the centre for developing royal ships during the reign of Henry V. Discover how this ancient maritime centre has played a part in much of the history and heritage of England.

Historic Hamble

Location: Hamble

Dates:

July 18th 2015

Start Time:

2pm

Departs:

Meet at Hamble Square by bus stop, High Street, Hamble SO31 4LS.

Tour Length:

Tour lasts approximately one and a half hours

It may now seem like a sleepy coastal village but at the time of The Battle of Agincourt, Hamble was one of the most important medieval ship building centres in the country. This tour will reveal where troops trained ready for the great battle in France and where those conspiring to overthrow Henry V met to plot his downfall.

Otterbourne And The Southampton Plot

Location: Otterbourne

Date:

August 5th 2015

Start Time:

7.30pm

Departs:

Meet on The Green near the Otter Inn, Otterbourne.

Tour Length:

Tour lasts approximately one and a half hours

To celebrate the 600th Anniversary of the Battle of Agincourt, this evening walk recounts the role Otterbourne played in the story of those who planned to murder Henry V in Southampton, before he sailed for France and the Battle of Agincourt.

